

Endorsements and praise for Cumberland's Keogh Protection Plan

“With the excellent growth record rare coins have had as an investment, they represent another logical way to diversify one’s retirement portfolio. This is something I’ve recommended for a number of years.”

Loren Dunton, President
The National Center for Financial Education

“The Father of Financial Planning,” Loren Dunton, has a distinguished career in helping Americans manage their hard-earned assets. Mr. Dunton founded the International Association for Financial Planning (IAFP), The Financial Planning Magazine, and the Certified Financial Planning (CFP) designation which planners today strive to attain. Most recently, he founded the National Center for Financial Education (NCFE) that teaches everyone from high schoolers to retirees the basics of sound money management.

Copied with permission from Cumberland Coins Keogh Protection Plan, published in 1987